SCORE

A strong and robust beer encased in light creamy flavors, this hazy golden triple is truly a sheep in wolves' clothing. A rare find, as most beers this high in alcohol tend towards sickly sweet. Kasteel hides the alcohol within a perfect combination of malt, hops and nutty richness. Vinous aromas of bready malts, exotic fruits and banana esters lead to spicy, light citrus and and bitter orange hop flavor flavors that are brought together for a creamy character that exemplifies a strong-bodied, yet delicate Belgian beer.
