

| Peak Summer Session  |                     |                   |
|--|---------------------|-------------------|
| Peak   |                     |                   |
| STYLEAmerican IPA   | ABV5.00% | IBUS61 |
| FOOD PAIRINGSSalad, Seafood, Spicy Dishes   |                     |                   |
| Peak's summer seasonal can be described as a marriage of a traditional summer wheat beer and a West Coast pale ale. Locally grown wheat provides a complex mouth feel and Amarillo dry-hopping gives the beer a citrusy aroma. |                     | SCORE      |

| Peak Summer Session  |                     |                   |
|--|---------------------|-------------------|
| Peak   |                     |                   |
| STYLEAmerican IPA   | ABV5.00% | IBUS61 |
| FOOD PAIRINGSSalad, Seafood, Spicy Dishes   |                     |                   |
| Peak's summer seasonal can be described as a marriage of a traditional summer wheat beer and a West Coast pale ale. Locally grown wheat provides a complex mouth feel and Amarillo dry-hopping gives the beer a citrusy aroma. |                     | SCORE      |

| Peak Summer Session  |                     |                   |
|--|---------------------|-------------------|
| Peak   |                     |                   |
| STYLEAmerican IPA   | ABV5.00% | IBUS61 |
| FOOD PAIRINGSSalad, Seafood, Spicy Dishes   |                     |                   |
| Peak's summer seasonal can be described as a marriage of a traditional summer wheat beer and a West Coast pale ale. Locally grown wheat provides a complex mouth feel and Amarillo dry-hopping gives the beer a citrusy aroma. |                     | SCORE      |

| Peak Summer Session  |                     |                   |
|--|---------------------|-------------------|
| Peak   |                     |                   |
| STYLEAmerican IPA   | ABV5.00% | IBUS61 |
| FOOD PAIRINGSSalad, Seafood, Spicy Dishes   |                     |                   |
| Peak's summer seasonal can be described as a marriage of a traditional summer wheat beer and a West Coast pale ale. Locally grown wheat provides a complex mouth feel and Amarillo dry-hopping gives the beer a citrusy aroma. |                     | SCORE      |

