With 50.1% of the fermentables coming from grain and 49.9% coming from grapes, this is quite literally the closest to wine a beer can legally be. Late-harvest Viognier grape must from DFH's friends at Alexandria Nicole Cellars in Washington is used. Brewed with a distinct Belgian yeast strain, Mixed Media is a complex saison-esque ale with a spicy white wine body, notes of sweet melon and a tart, dry finish.
