A liquid nod to the only pre-revolutionary tavern still standing in The City of Brotherly Love. “Man Full of Trouble” was one of Colonial Philadelphia’s first watering holes. This London-style porter was brewed with the Old World in mind. Black and chocolate malts create its deep mahogany appearance and creamy espresso-like flavor, while a blend of English hops lends a delicate earthy presence. This beer has won multiple awards including: a silver medal at the 10th Annual New York International Beer Competition in 2021, first place winner at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Awards in 2020 and a bronze medal at the Great American Beer Festival in 2017 and 2021.
