Peak lives to create flavorful, hop-drenched, hazy IPAs that showcase the quality of ingredients from their organic farmers. For years, they've been searching for ways to showcase an abundance of hop flavor in a beer that is under 95 calories and less than 3 carbs. After years of hard work and research, they finally formed Slim Hazy, a 4.1%, hop-forward IPA, overflowing with organic Calypso, Citra and Simcoe hops. All the hop grandeur and haze that you expect from a world-class IPA, but with a low-calorie profile, so you can crush your life goals.
